

2017 Sharon Wilsie Horse Speak Clinics

Hosted by Heidi Potter Holistic Horsemanship

Guilford, Vermont October 26, 2017 9:00am-1:00pm

Learn the true language of Equus

See into the window of their soul and learn about what they are truly feeling.

An Inspirational & Educational Equine Experience

Open your mind and heart to discover the true language of the horse.

A Horse Speak clinic is an experience like none other. It is designed for anyone who interacts with horses and wishes to improve their overall understanding and ability to communicate with them.

Horses are constantly engaged in conversation through their mastery of body language. Participants will observe and learn the meaning behind every shift of the body, swish of the tail, blink of the eye and movement of the ears.

Improve your ability to communication in a meaningful and mindful way through interactive exercises with horses and humans.

9-1:00/Clinic horses available at no charge $100 to participate/$25 to audit/Limited space

To learn more contact Heidi Heidi@heidpotter.com or visit www.heidpotter.com

Create a more safe, trusting and enjoyable partnership

Discover what it means to just "be"

Meet Sharon Wilsie

Sharon Wilsie has enjoyed a professional career as a horse trainer/rehabilitator, Intercollegiate coach, and riding instructor. Her love for horses has been life-long. She is also a Reiki Master and has developed and implemented several programs over the last decade, including; volunteer training groups for horse rescues and therapeutic riding centers, Equine Assisted Learning course at Landmark College, as well as hundreds of workshops, seminars and engagements in a variety of topics about Equine Facilitated Therapies, alternative training and rehabilitation methods for difficult horses and horses with PTSD. Sharon's passion has always been to create a two - way street of mutual healing, awareness and betterment for both horses and people. For more information visit. www.wilsie.wayhorsemanship.com